Happy New Year to All!

We are constantly amazed at how the Lord blesses us in ways we could not expect or imagine. The Lord is not currently allowing us to work with crowds of people, but those we work with have a heart to know and follow the Saviour. We could not ask for anything better than this for, we believe this heart to know and follow the Saviour is necessary to produce a lasting ministry here in Edmonton.

We continue to see lost and saved visitors walk through our doors each week. Several lost visitors are asking questions, and we are looking forward to seeing each of them come to a saving knowledge of Christ soon. Some saved visitors need to decide on baptism and/or church membership. One young man has already decided to follow Jesus in Scriptural baptism. He is so excited to have found a church home, and we are excited to have him with us.

The winter months tend to slow our evangelistic efforts, especially as temperatures reach -40 with windchill. However, we still receive a trickle of requests for a free New Testament or our salvation booklet, entitled Seven Steps to God. As we continue to sow the seed of the Word, we are praying for a harvest of souls.

When temperatures prevent outdoor evangelism, we spend our time in preparation for the coming season. We often plan and prepare Gospel literature for the year. We also prepare ourselves for the work ahead. For example, instead of getting out into the "deep freeze" to distribute Gospel literature, we have used that time to teach and prepare our people for this year's evangelistic effort. We are encouraged by those who want to know more about sharing their faith on an individual basis and through organized church efforts. We look forward to positive fruit due to our teaching and training.

We have been trying, since the beginning of December, to get in to see an inmate at Fort Saskatchewan Correctional Centre. The devil has been fighting this meeting every step of the way. The initial meeting was missed due to sickness in our family. A COVID outbreak in the facility has prevented us from visiting since that time. Please pray that we can schedule an appropriate time to meet with this young man and that he will find help from the Lord.

We have heard nothing new regarding our immigration applications. While it seems as if nothing is happening, we know that God is working behind the scenes to accomplish His will. Please pray that we will have patience and that our applications will find favour from the immigration officers in God's time.

We want to publicly thank each one who sacrificed to send us a Christmas card or offering. We thank God continually for the faithful supporters He has provided for us.

The Night Cometh!
