Dear Praying Friends,

Thanksgiving

Looking back over the events of the past few months, I am awed by how quickly things have moved to bring us to today. The more I think of these events, I am reminded of the hymn, Thanks to God, which says, in part:

Thanks to God
for my Redeemer,
Thanks for all Thou dost provide!
Thanks for times now but a mem'ry,
Thanks for Jesus by my side!
Thanks for pleasant, balmy springtime,
Thanks for dark and stormy fall!
Thanks for tears by now forgotten,
Thanks for peace within my soul!

Recovery

I continue to recover from my surgery, and feel better now than I did most of 2023. I am aware I am not yet back to "normal," but the progress has been wonderful and amazing. I began preaching one Sunday service each week on 14 January. I picked up our midweek Bible Study on 6 February. For now, I am happy to have my sons handle the other Sunday service for me. They have been such a blessing to me, my wife, and our ministry here during this time.

Postponement

I had planned to begin a monthly Bible Prophecy class the first Friday in January. Of course, this had to be set back due to my recovery. The postponement only served to raise everyone's anticipation of the class that was held on 2 February. Our regular folks and a few non-regulars were out for this precious time of study of the Word of God. We have heard of more interest for our next class, coming in March. Please pray that this class will be a growing tool for believers and an evangelistic tool for unbelievers.

Sound the Trumpet

The first message I preached after my surgery was a challenge to all of us to pray and seek opportunities to "sound the trumpet" of the Gospel everywhere we go. Please pray that God will open new doors for us to minister to the lost and see souls come to a saving knowledge of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Thank you so much for praying for my recovery, my family, and the ministry God has given us in Edmonton. We do not take your love and prayers lightly.

Humbly His,
