Dear Praying Friends,

Serving the Lord Jesus is a privilege, yet it is a busy life. We are thankful for the health and wisdom we have been given to accomplish each task.

At Home

We have been praying for one lady and her two children for several years. The devil always seems to throw something in the way to prevent them from coming. We were thrilled to see her and the boys one Sunday in August. Please pray that she will come more frequently, and that her standing before God will be made clear to her.

I was distributing flyers from house to house recently, and happened to hand a flyer to a young lady sitting on the front steps of one house. I glanced at her when I was a couple of houses down and noticed her reading the Gospel presentation on the back of the flyer. We were so thrilled to see her attend several services in the past couple of weeks. She is confused about many things, but we believe the Lord will bring her clarity. Please pray for her.

We have a salvation Bible study booklet we give out to interested people from time to time. The Lord allowed us to share five of these salvation booklets during the month of August. Please pray that we will see souls come to a saving knowledge of Christ, and that we will be able to see these folks grow in the Lord.

Abroad

The Lord gave me a tremendous opportunity to attend and speak at a preacher's fellowship in Saskatchewan (the province directly east of us). It was a joy to meet and fellowship with some men of God I did not know, and to take my family to meet other families who seek to serve the Saviour. It was a great blessing to us.

Our whole family was privileged to spend a week of August with one supporting church. We were able to report on the ministry in Edmonton, present special music, and preach on two different occasions.

During our "down time," we enjoyed tremendous fellowship with the pastor and his family. We are so thankful for every faithful church that labours with us in the work of the Lord.

Jason, our youngest son, was used of the Lord to fill the pulpit of two different pastor-less churches in Alberta during the month of August. I appreciate his desire to preach the Gospel whenever he has an opportunity. Jason recently had an accident that totalled his vehicle. We are grateful that no one was injured in this accident, but it makes the work of the ministry a bit more difficult with one less vehicle. Please pray for wisdom in working out the logistics of our daily lives and ministry so our family can continue to serve the Lord as we have. Please pray for the Lord to provide a reliable vehicle for Jason to use for the Lord.

I have had some physical issues recently. Some medical tests have been run and others are in the future. Please pray for answers. Please pray for physical strength to continue the ministry here.

Thank you for faithfully praying for the Lord's work here. We cannot express how greatly we need your prayers.

Humbly His,
