Dear Praying Friends,

We are constantly amazed at the power God brings to bear when we are faithful to pray. Over and over again we have seen God move because we ceased worrying and simply took our needs to the Lord in prayer. In doing so, we find that God gets all the glory for Himself, fulfilling the ultimate goal of the believer.

In our previous prayer letter, we mentioned Jason's accident. Practically speaking, he could not afford to purchase another vehicle for several months, but we made this need a matter of prayer. God worked beyond our means. A preacher friend, who is also a car salesman, brought in an older, well-maintained, low-mileage vehicle on a trade. That same day he read our prayer letter about Jason's accident. He wanted to call at that time, but thought it was too late, so he called the following morning. We were amazed at the excellent condition of the vehicle, and could not believe the asking price. Within a week, Jason was able to purchase this vehicle, and has already used it to travel and preach in the surrounding areas. We are thankful that the Lord laid this on the heart of our friend, but we are most thankful that the Lord brought everything together to meet this need. We appreciate each one who prayed on Jason's behalf.

Tyson, the man who trusted Christ a few months back, has been in the hospital after collapsing at work. He has a lot of issues that they are trying to work through before he is released. Please pray that he will remain positive through this trying time, and that his relationship with the Lord Jesus will become stronger as a result of these occurrences.

The young lady who began attending our services after receiving a flyer has continued to attend irregularly. She has been working to bring her family to church with her, but they have found many excuses not to attend. She has many needs in her home and personal life. Becky and I have spent quite a bit of time with her, giving her counsel and pointing her to Christ. It seems like she understands that she needs Christ, but is hesitant to trust Him. Please pray for her salvation.

Please continue to pray for my health. The doctor ordered tests in August but the clinic hasn't called to schedule yet. We are trusting the Lord for this need.

I had the privilege to preach in Brandon, Manitoba during the month of September. I preached five times during our stay there, Becky spoke to the ladies, and we both enjoyed a tremendous time for fellowship with the good people of that church. We are thankful for our sons, who handled our services in our absence. We are blessed by their faithfulness to the Lord.

The whole family continues to be busy with the work of the Lord. Recently, James and Jason have been blessed with serious opportunities to witness to co-workers, while all the family has been busy talking to people about Christ. Please pray for souls to be saved.

Humbly His,
