

Dear Praying Friends,

Fall has passed quickly and winter is already setting in for the season. This means that our outreach efforts slow down a bit, giving us a chance to evaluate the efforts we have made and make any adjustments necessary for the spring. This also gives us time to settle on lesson plans and messages for the coming year. Please pray for wisdom and direction as we make plans for the coming year's efforts for the Lord.

I recently completed preparations for a new course in our Bible Institute: The Life of David. I am looking forward to presenting these lectures during the month of December. I have also spent a great deal of time video recording each lecture. The positive thing about this is that, once recorded, these lectures may be used and reused for many years to come. While this is time-consuming activity, we believe that these endeavours will result in grounded believers and men prepared to minister for the Lord Jesus. Please pray that the Lord will help those in our Bible Institute to grasp and apply the precious truths presented from the Word of God.

We were invited to participate in the Missions Conference of a supporting church here in Alberta. We rejoiced to see friends and fellow-labourers with Christ, and to give a brief report of the ministry in Edmonton. We were challenged by the preaching to press forward in our work for the Lord. It is always good to be challenged by sound Bible preaching.

Becky and I made the trip to Manitoba to fill the pulpit for a church. We have made friends in this church and are thankful for the opportunity to fellowship with them and preach the Word. We pray for them to be encouraged in the Lord and remain faithful while seeking a new pastor. Canada needs more labourers.

Please pray specifically for more labourers to be sent into the harvest fields of Canada. "Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest (Luke 10:2)."

We are thankful to God for the good health that we enjoy. While we have the same aches and pains that everyone enjoys, we have not been down with cold or flu. This is a blessing that we do not take for granted. On the other hand, please pray for my parents, Bob & Gail Jackson, who are recovering from COVID. They seem to be doing well, but it is difficult for us to be unable of being with them and helping them during this time. We know that they are in the Lord's hands.

We greatly appreciate the texts, emails, and calls we received last month. We were encouraged by each one who took the time to reach out to us. Thank you, too, for faithfully praying for us and the ministry God has given to us here. We are thankful to God for the opportunity to serve Him in these Last Days.

Humbly His,
